

Your Child at the Library

The purpose of this book is to help pre-teach what a library experience will be like for young children.

With his book, children will gain a visual familiarity of the Arlington Heights Memorial Library and Kids' World so that they can feel comfortable during their visits.

This book will help you teach your children how to use library services, attend a storytime, and interact appropriately at the library.

Thank you for visiting! Please let us know how we can be of assistance or if you have questions.

To contact the Kids' World Desk, call 847-506-2620 or email kids@ahml.info.

This is my library.

In the library, I walk and use a quiet voice.

This is Kids' World.

There are lots of fun things to do in Kids' World.

I can play with puzzles.

I can look for books.

I can play on the computer.

I can play with the Word Wall.

I can use the Writing Table.

I can do a puppet show.

I can look at the fish tank.

I can look at the doll house.

I share with other children at the library.

This is the Kids' World Desk.
I come here to ask a question.

The librarians help me find books, movies, music, toys, and games.

This is the room where I go for storytime.

During storytime,
I sit like this.

I listen to the librarians
read books and tell stories.

In storytime,
I can move and dance to music.

This is a library card.

This is the Check-Out desk.
I wait for my turn.

After I check things out,
I can take them home.

Return Here

I take care of my items and return them to the library.

Now it's time to go home.

Visiting the library is fun!
