

How It Works

Jolie Duncan
Info Services Supervisor
jduncan@ahml.info

About the class:

- Learn how to use your existing Pinterest account more efficiently
- Understand how to create and organize boards and pins
- Learn how to search, follow, and find information

What is Pinterest:

<https://help.pinterest.com/en/guide/all-about-pinterest>

How can you use it?

- Plan an event
- Redecorate
- Recipes
- Cleaning tips
- Style
- Exercise tips
- Photography
- Quotes
- Books to read
- And the list goes on and on.....

Pinterest Vocabulary:

- Board: This is where you organize your “favorites” into categories. The categories can be as broad or as specific as you’d like. Ex. “recipes,” “little black dresses,” “funny,” etc.
- To Pin: To place a visual representation of a particular website, video, or image on your board.
- Pins: These are the images you have added to your Pinterest boards.
- Repin / Repins: A step beyond a “like,” a repin allows you to share someone else’s pin directly with your followers.
- Followers: Anyone who has chosen to regularly view your pins.
- Following: Any accounts you have chosen to follow. Note: You can choose to follow all of someone’s boards or just individual ones.

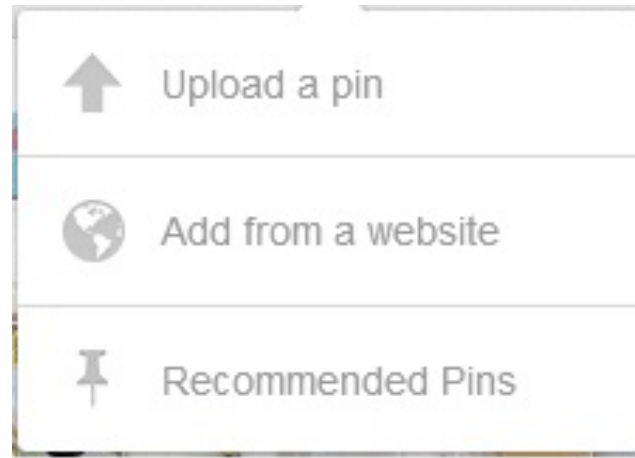

How Pinterest Works:

- Pinterest is a visual representation of something (ex. web page). In order for a web page to be pinned it must have at least one image that is “pinnable!”

How to Use Pinterest:

- Sign in via Twitter, Facebook, etc.
- Pinterest's core functionality:

- Add a Pin: from a website via Pinterest directly.
- Upload a Pin: uploads personal content using the portal.
- Create a Board: organizes collections in a user-defined set.

RANDALL MUNROE
creator of xkcd

Fans of xkcd ask Munroe a lot of strange questions. What if you tried to hit a baseball pitched at 90 percent the speed of light? How fast can you hit a speed bump while driving and live? In pursuit of answers, Munroe runs computer simulations, pores over stacks of declassified military research memos, solves differential

Get Into The Holiday Spirit With Scandinavian Glogg

In snowy Norway, nothing evokes Christmastime like a pot of glogg brewing on the stove. The traditional Scandinavian winter drink mixes wine and port with spices like clove, cardamom and cinnamon to make for a brew that smells divine and tastes even better.
